The Phoenix Leadership Academy for Girls

The National Council of Negro Women Inc. Los Angeles View Park Section (NCNW) presents the Phoenix Leadership Academy for Girls each summer. Our purpose is to develop leadership skills in girls ages 8 to 13, with an underlying focus on prevention of juvenile crime, teen pregnancy & disease, and enhancing academic achievement; while providing information on emotional management, character building, and career paths in the fields of science, math, and medicine.

Our mission is to advance the opportunities and the quality of life for women, their families and communities. NCNW fulfills this mission through research, advocacy, national and community based services and programs in the United States and Africa. NCNW has an outreach to nearly four million women, all contributing to peaceful solutions to the problems of human welfare and rights. The national headquarters, which acts as a central source for program planning, is based in Washington, DC, on Pennsylvania Avenue, located between the White House and the U.S. Capitol.

Curriculum

The Phoenix Leadership Academy curriculum focuses around 8 topics. Each subject is covered comprehensively over an 8 week period. Classes will be offered as a component of Summer Night Lights and held at Imperial Courts housing development. Girls 9 through 14 years of age will participate in one (2) hour session once per week. Field trips for cultural and educational enrichment as well as for reinforcement of learned skills will be an integral part of the program. Throughout the program participants will be exposed to professional and successful role models to enhance the possibility of personal success.

Staffing: NCNW Volunteers, both English and Spanish speaking. Parents will be invited to volunteer for information please call 323-301-4697
